Student Loans

The provincial and federal governments provide loan programs to supplement the resources of students and their families, thereby assisting all qualified students in reaching their educational potential.

A student loan in repayable assistance. Financing your education with student loans means that you are spending now what you will earn in the future. Therefore, take some time to carefully consider your choice of school and program of study.

Saskatchewan Student Financial Assistance:

- Administers both the federal and provincial government sponsored student loans under the Canada-Saskatchewan Integrated Student Loan Program
- The program offers a needs-based supplement to your existing resources to help you fund your post-secondary education
- When you submit your application, government sponsored bursaries, grants, and the Canada Millennium Scholarship Foundation Bursary are computed as part of the loan application process.
- Go to http://www.saskatchewan.ca/residents/education-and-learning/student-loans

National Student Loan Service Centre

- Canada-Saskatchewan Integrated Student Loans are administered through this service.

- IF you are a student attending a student loan eligible institution, this site provides information to help you receive, manage, and repay your student loan
- Go to https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/student-financial-aid.html

Bank Loans

- Financial institutions offer student-lines of credit for those pursuing post-secondary education

Helpful Tips

- ✓ Check with employers, parent's employers, service clubs, fraternal, sport and recreational organizations with you have connections. Many offer scholarships and/or bursaries to their members/ participants.

- ✓ Post-secondary institutions offer scholarships and/or bursaries to students studying in their facility/faculty. Check your school's website or contact the registrar's office for more information. Some associations will offer scholarships specific to particular schools as well, for example CAA in correspondence with U of S, U of R, or Sask Polytechnic.

- ✓ Sign up for scholarship newsletters. You will be sent a variety of scholarships and bursaries to apply for.

- ✓ Apply to everything that you can. Some people won't apply to scholarships if there is a lot required in the application. That will increase your chances!

- ✓ Be mindful of the deadline! Late applications are not accepted or considered!

- ✓ Make sure you submit all that is required for the application. Often scholarships require proof of acceptance, high school transcripts, reference letters, resumes, etc. Incomplete applications are immediately dismissed.

- ✓ When asking for a reference letter, be sure to give enough notice to the person writing it for you. It's not fair to request a letter the day before the deadline.

- ✓ Make sure to read over and double check your application.

- ✓ A lot of scholarships are submitted online nowadays, so be sure to call the provider to ensure that it has been received.

- ✓ If mailing, make sure that all documents are LEGIBLE. Typed is best for essays, letters, etc., but make sure the application form is readable.

- ✓ Allow 2 weeks for mailing time. Then follow up with a confirmation phone call.

- ✓ To request your transcript go to http://education.gov.sk/transcripts

- ✓ If you have questions contact Mrs. Madison Getzinger at the school.
