RE: STF Job Action Update

Dear Hillmond School Families,

The STF announced a one-day withdrawal of noon-hour supervision on Tuesday, March 5.

Our school plan for this day will include an altered schedule with an earlier dismissal time, to manage supervision and ensure student safety.

The school day will look like:

Start time: 8:55 (as usual)

Students will eat their lunch at their desk during instructional time. PLEASE NOTE: IN ORDER TO PROTECT INSTRUCTIONAL TIME, MICROWAVES WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE TO HEAT LUNCHES ON TUESDAY, MARCH 5TH.

Dismissal time: 2:37

The school is coordinating with the Transportation department, so buses will pick up students at the new dismissal time on this day.

NWSD respects the collective bargaining process and continues to be hopeful for a resolution.

We want to thank you for your understanding and support as we strive to keep you informed. We will continue to provide updates as needed through Edsby, email, and our website, www.nwsd.ca.

Sincerely,

Tina Pero
Principal, Hillmond Central School

Dance and Movement with Marah

We are excited to have Marah joining the Grade 1 to 5 classes on Wednesday, March 6th to share her love of dance in our PE classes.

Marah Hoegl was raised on a farm in Hillmond, SK. She is a homemaker and mother of four, who is following her dreams of inspiring people through movement. She brings with her 25 years of dance training and the passion to educate with the power of positive music and language.

Marah leads a creative dance class that allows for the unique expression of each individual through mindfulness, breath, and rhythm. She holds a safe place for your child to let go of their insecurities and dance from their heart. Her creative movement classes are a great workout filled with joy and laughter.
